S. H. & H. Chapman.

Gentlemen:- Shall I continue your Ad. at the same rates and conditions as the past year? I have no time to look over coins on approval now. My spare time is more than occupied with The Numismatist. It is getting to be quite a lit of work to me as you can well imagine. Kindly let me hear from you at once as the time is very short. Any changes from month to month you are entitled to if you should wish.

Yours fraternally,

Geo. H. Heath

MONROE, MICH. JUL 30 1904 1904.

S. S. & H. Chapman,

Gentlemen:- Some time since on your objections, the application of John Arndt of Delavan, Wis., was held up. Will you kindly inform me if he has made "good" with you and if your objections to him are still in force? If other objections against him were filed with me. Thanking you, I am,

Fraternally yours,
